

COLORED WOMEN IN SUFFRAGE PARADE

They Will Have Places in College and New York Divisions

ISSUE IS SQUARELY PUT

Already It Is Said to Have Caused Dissension in Ranks.

Washington, March 1.—Colored women students from the Howard University will march in the college division of the suffrage parade under the direction of Miss Elsie Hill, daughter of the Congressman from Connecticut, who is in charge of that division. Colored women will also be in the New York division.

This brings the color question squarely to the issue. The news that the colored women will march has been kept more or less a secret for fear the Southern women affiliated with the parade and the populace of Washington would object to the presence of negro suffragists in the big demonstration.

Rumors of a disagreement between Miss Alice Paul, chairman in charge of the parade, and the National Association prevailed to-night. It seems Miss Paul informed some negro suffragists who wish to march that while the National Association recognizes equal rights for colored women, yet the people of the South might take umbrage to their presence in the parade.

This statement of Miss Paul rather discouraged the organization of a colored division in the parade. But when news of Miss Paul's action reached national headquarters, it was said it created a storm.

Rev. Anna Shaw, president of the association, denied to-night that there had been any friction between Miss Paul and the national officials over the negro question. It is known, however, that at least one member of the national committee regarded Miss Paul's action as disobedience of orders, as she had been specially instructed to permit negroes to march if they cared to.

Miss Paul is in seclusion to-night and did not attend the banquet given to the hikers at Rauscher's.

Women from all parts of the country flocked into Washington to-day and to-night to participate in the woman suffrage pageant to emphasize to the people generally, and to the incoming Congress in particular, the "on-wide demand for an amendment to the Constitution of the United States enfranchising women."

Yesterday's demonstration over the arrival of "General" Rosalie Jones and her pilgrims did not tire the scores of women workers manning plans for the parade, which will form at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Peace Monument.

The message which "General" Jones has carried from New York to-day is delivered to President-elect Wilson, made public to-day. It is an appeal signed by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, urging Mr. Wilson to recommend equal suffrage in his inaugural address and to use his influence throughout his administration in favor of a constitutional amendment.

Warner's Safe Remedies

Bright's Disease

Don't neglect your kidneys and run the danger of contracting Bright's Disease. Many do and they pay dearly for disregard of their health. Weak kidneys are common to most people. That is why there are so many cases of kidney disease, dropsy, and Bright's disease—so much rheumatism, sciatica, backaches and nervous disorders.

Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy has proved to be a wonderful remedy for kidney and liver troubles the past 35 years. Thousands praise it and attribute their recovery to it after having failed with everything else.

They recommend it to their friends, and they in turn use it and praise it to other sufferers. This success and endorsement have grown to remarkable proportions.

"Doctors Held Out No Hope." "Several doctors said I had severe Bright's Disease, and that there was no cure my agony was terrible. The first two bottles of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy gave me relief and I could sleep better. After the sixth I was able to do housework comfortably. I took 15 bottles several boxes of pills. I now keep the pills as a household remedy. I wish I had used your medicine sooner. It would have saved me many hours of agony." Mrs. C. Booth, W. Waukegan, Manitowish, Wis.

Entertainment for London.

London, March 1.—Suffragettes playing barrel organs, drawing pictures on the pavements, setting flowers on the street corners and singing suffrage songs, provided lively entertainment for the residents of London to-day.

The women gathered a considerable amount of money.

Today's inauguration by the suffragists of their period of self-denial was attended by demonstration. Crowds of people in the streets showed a hostile spirit, and a number of wrecked barrel organs and disheveled suffragettes was the result this evening.

The police in several instances had to rescue women who had fallen into the hands of gangs which threatened to strip or duck them in fountains.

Make Startling Charge.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] Havana, March 1.—That Francisco Madero, former President of Mexico, and Jose Pino Suarez, his Vice-President, were assassinated and horribly mutilated in the National Palace, in the penitentiary in Mexico City, is the statement made here by Francisco Madero, Sr., and his brother, Ernesto Madero, who was Minister of Finance in his nephew's Cabinet.

The fugitive Madero family arrived here last night and today gave this astonishing version of the killing of Madero and Suarez to friends.

According to the Maderos, Francisco and Suarez were upon late at night in the National Palace when they were then their bodies were placed upright in automobiles and rushed to the prison. Just as the machines whirled around the corner of the prison the fake attempt at rescue was staged.

Several shots were fired, and the bodies were dumped out into the prison yard. Word was then sent to the guards in front of the prison that Madero and Suarez had been shot in a fight with a rescuing party.

The next day an official investigation was begun to carry out the plot and dispel all suspicion.

The assassination in a National Palace room, the Maderos here claim, accounts for the powder marks found on Francisco Madero's face and the holes burned in his clothing by the flame of an exploding revolver.

Deny Knowledge of Request.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] Havana, March 1.—No request has been received here through Jose P. Gudiol, the Mexican minister to Cuba, for the detention of Francisco Madero, Sr., father of the murdered President of Mexico, and Ernesto Madero, an uncle of the President, and four other charge having to do with an alleged attempt to bribe the Zapatistas not to attempt to detain Madero. If such a request were made of the Cuban government the reply is problematical.

Secretaries of State Sanguily could not be reached, and the government deny any knowledge of the request.

It is not known that the four persons accompanying the Maderos—Rafael Hernandez, Federico Garza and Congressmen Renson and Cabrera—are on the island.

Resignation a Forgery.

San Antonio, Texas, March 1.—The purported resignation of the late President Madero was today declared by R. V. Pasquero, a member of the Mexican Chamber of Deputies, to be a forgery by those who killed him, to give color of legality to the Huerta administration. Mr. Pasquero is now a refugee in San Antonio. He asserted that Madero and Vice-President Suarez were killed so they could not deny their resignation. Senor Pasquero has wired this statement to his convictions to Washington.

Gonzales Free Man.

El Paso, Texas, March 1.—Abraham Gonzales, the Chihuahua Governor, deposed and jailed, was a free man today at Chihuahua City. Charges of sedition held against him by the military authorities were said to have been canceled on promise that Gonzales would use his influence to make peace in the border State.

continuous stream. Practically the whole town said good-bye to him to-night, and the farewells will be continued to-morrow.

Turns Over His Office.

Trenton, N. J., March 1.—Woodrow Wilson, soon to be inaugurated President of the United States, formally turned over to-day the office of Governor of New Jersey to James J. Fielder, president of the State Senate.

The President-elect was cheered by a big crowd as he came into the assembly chamber, followed closely by Mr. Fielder. After the latter took the oath of office, the President-elect was invited to address the joint session of the Legislature and deliver the seal of the State to his successor.

His speech was brief, but impressive. It was his farewell to the State.

"I cannot pretend that I am not moved by very deep emotions," he began. "I had not expected to say anything. It would, indeed, have been my preference not to say anything, because there are some feelings that are too deep for words, and that seem to be deepened by being put into words."

"I already loved the State of New Jersey when I became its Governor, but that love has been deepened and intensified during the last two and a half years. I now feel a sense of identification with the people and the interests of this State which have seemed to me large my own personality, and which life has been the greatest privilege of my life."

Great Confidence in Him.

"Therefore, in handing the seal of the State to the new Governor, I want to utter these words of poignant regret: 'I cannot serve this great State directly and loyally for the moment that the traveling from here to New York will be so fatiguing, and yet I have the greatest feeling of confidence in the man to whom I am about to hand this seal. I have been associated with him with unusual intimacy of counsel. I have found in him qualities of honesty and courage which commend him more than any other qualities do in public life.'"

The President-elect's public life is courage, and the man who has courage is marked for distinction; the man who has not is marked for extinction, and deserves submergence."

The President-elect's country are going to be served by conscience and not by expediency. When you strike a man of courage, you strike a man who is the bed-rock of our institutions. It is, therefore, with a feeling of confidence that I hand him the seal of office."

Governor Fielder made a brief inaugural address, extolling the achievements and character of the retiring Governor, and expressing New Jersey's wishes to him for a successful national administration.

Princeton, N. J., March 1.—The President-elect returned to his home in Princeton by the trip to Washington.

IN MEMORIAM

GILL.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, SOPHIA BOSH, who departed this life one year ago to-morrow, March 3, 1912.

One year has passed and still we miss you.

And the world is sad and dear, For you are not our dear mother, Every day and everywhere.

Your busy hands are folded, Your work on earth is done; Your trials are all ended, Your heavenly crown is won.

Friends may think we'll soon forget And our wounded hearts be healed, But they little know the sorrow That within our hearts concealed.

We miss you, dear mother, We miss you every day, Home seems not the same to us Since our dear mother passed away.

WOOD.—In remembrance of STEPHEN L. WOOD, who died one year ago to-day.

You are gone, but not forgotten, Fresh on our love will ever live, For as long as there is memory We shall always think of thee, BY FATHER AND SISTERS.

NICHOLAS.—In memory of our dear sister, GERTRUDE W. NICHOLAS, who died three years ago, February 28.

We know that all must part and suffer, Christ once suffered on the cross, To thee thy death has been thy gain, To us a heavy loss, BY HER SISTERS.

MORAN.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, MARIE E. MORAN, who died six years ago to-day, March 2, 1907.

Gone, but not forgotten, HER DAUGHTER, OLIVIA.

BROCK.—In sad but loving memory of our brother, J. J. BROCK, who departed this life one year ago, February 27th.

Though the mist hangs o'er the river, And its billows loudly roar, Yet we hear the song of angels, Wafted from the other shore.

And the bright celestial light, We have caught such radiant gleams, Of its towers like dazzling sunlight, With its sweet and peaceful gleams.

BY HIS MOTHER AND BROTHER AND SISTERS AND NIECES, FANNY AND RENA.

BROCK.—In sad but loving memory of our dear father and husband, W. R. BROCK, who departed this life to-day five years ago.

Call not back the dear departed, Anchored safe where storms are o'er; On life's borderland we left him, Soon to meet and part no more.

He has called for many a loved one; We have seen them leave our side; With our Saviour we shall meet them, When we, too, have crossed the tide.

BY HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN.

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Have You Rheumatism, Kidney, Liver or Bladder Trouble?

Pain or dull ache in the back is evidence of kidney trouble. It is Nature's timely warning to show you that the track of health is not clear.

Danger Signals. If these danger signals are unheeded more serious results follow; Bright's disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble, may steal upon you.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable curative effect in the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine, you should have the best.

Lame Back. Lame back is only one of many symptoms of kidney trouble. Other symptoms showing that you need Swamp-Root are, being obliged to pass water often during the day and to get up many times during the night.

Inability to hold urine, smarting in passing, uric acid, headache, dizziness, indigestion, sleeplessness, nervousness, sometimes the heart acts badly, rheumatism, bloating, lack of ambition, may be loss of flesh, sallow complexion.

Prevalence of Kidney Disease. Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who usually content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original cause constantly undermines the system.

The New York Electrical School teaches men practical electricity and shows them the way to earn big money by becoming expert electricians. No profession has a more splendid future than electricity.

We teach our students how to become master electricians by painstakingly drilling them in the actual work personally taught from the day he enters, and individual instruction is given in all practical branches of the work. Students are first taught the simpler electrical work and as they gradually progress they are taken from department to department until finally they can completely equip a building from the blue prints the students themselves have drawn. When they receive their certificate they are ready to go out in the world with a profession that will never forsake them.

Good Electricians are always in demand and the money they earn is often twice as much as other men earn from ordinary trades.
